Visiting Professor in Brazil	3 months	1

*The distribution of positions is indicative and may be reallocated at the institution's discretion.

2. PURPOSE

The Networks for Institutional Internationalization Program (CAPES-Global.Edu) aims to foster cooperation networks among Brazilian institutions at different stages of internationalization in order to promote, through international cooperation, the development of strategic research and graduate education activities by the participants.

2.1 Specific Objectives of the Program

I - To promote partnerships among Brazilian institutions from different regions of the country and at different stages of internationalization, with a view to international cooperation and mutual learning with institutions from the Global North and the Global South;

II - To encourage the design, implementation and consolidation of strategic internationalization plans by the participating institutions, aligned with their respective Institutional Development Plans (PDI);

III - To encourage collaboration with civil society organizations in order to expand institutional relevance within their context. This objective encompasses actions focused on teaching, research, outreach, innovation, leadership, entrepreneurship, creative economy, economic sustainability, and social and environmental awareness;

IV - To promote international experience opportunities, in Brazil and abroad, for graduate students, researchers, faculty and technical staff, aiming at the qualification of higher education professionals and at increased cooperation in teaching, research, outreach and innovation in national and international settings;

V - To promote a culture of internationalization that is diverse, inclusive and welcoming in the institutions participating in the networks; and

VI - To encourage the improvement of internationalization governance in Higher Education and Research Institutions (IES/IP), as well as the training of professionals for international management.

3. GENERAL CONDITIONS

3.1 Work plans must be aligned with the thematic areas, the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the strategic actions presented in Table 2.

Table 2 - Thematic areas, Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and strategic actions

THEMATIC AREA	RELATED SDGs	STRATEGIC ACTIONS
FIGHTING HUNGER	- No poverty; - Zero hunger and sustainable agriculture; - Responsible consumption and production; - Life on land.	- Integration and international cooperation; - Internationalized training and research of excellence; - Valuing family farming and local food systems; - Innovation in sustainable technologies and knowledge transfer; - Social inclusion and reduction of regional inequalities; - Network sustainability and continuity.
CLIMATE RESILIENCE IN A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE	- Quality education; - Clean water and sanitation; - Sustainable cities and communities; - Climate action; - Life on land.	- International training in climate resilience; - Scientific cooperation and international academic mobility; - Territorial application of adaptive solutions; - Science communication and international dissemination of the network; - Network sustainability and continuity.

3.2 Benefits will be granted exclusively to the scholarship holder, regardless of their socioeconomic status.

3.3 Holding more than one benefit for the same purpose and at the same level is not permitted. Candidates must declare that they have requested the suspension or cancellation of any other scholarships granted by international agencies and/or by federal, state or municipal Public Administration bodies or entities, except for the exceptions expressly provided for in CNPq Ordinance No. 1,863 of July 16, 2024, in FAPEMIG Board of Trustees Resolution No. 210 of 2024, and in other regulations of the funding agencies.

3.4 The list of eligible Stricto Sensu Graduate Programs (PPG) is available in Annex I.

3.5 The adoption of discriminatory criteria or practices on the grounds of pregnancy, childbirth, birth of a child, adoption or obtaining legal custody for the purpose of adoption is prohibited, ensuring equal opportunities and equal treatment at all stages of selection, evaluation, award and implementation of the benefits provided for in this instrument, in accordance with Law No. 15,124/2025 and CAPES Call No. 13/2025.

4. MODALITIES

4.1 Scholarships in Brazil

Scholarships and allowances will be granted directly by CAPES to the beneficiaries, following prior nomination by the Network.

Scholarships will be granted to residents abroad coming to Brazil, in accordance with the relevant instruments, in the following modalities:

I. Visiting Professor in Brazil, for periods of 1 or 3 months, which may be divided into up to three stays in the country over one year. If the stay is divided, the scholarship holder will be entitled to only one travel allowance and one settling-in allowance. Monthly stipends will be paid only for the periods of actual stay in Brazil.

II. Postdoctoral Fellowship in Brazil (with experience abroad), for 12 months, renewable up to a maximum of 36 months within the term of the Network.

III. Sandwich Doctorate in Brazil, for 6 or 12 months, within the term of the Network.

4.1.1 Visiting Professor in Brazil: The Visiting Professor in Brazil modality aims to attract renowned researchers and international leaders with outstanding scientific and technological output.

Duration: 1 month or 3 months (the Brazilian Higher Education Institution (HEI) will indicate up to 3 periods for the Visiting Professor's stay in Brazil when nominating the scholarship in the CAPES system).

Benefits (Ordinance No. 1 of January 3, 2020, as amended):

I. Settling-in allowance;

II. Travel allowance;

III. Health insurance allowance;

IV. Monthly stipend.

Receipt of the health insurance allowance by foreign scholarship holders entails the obligation to purchase health insurance valid for the entire period of stay in Brazil. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the full reimbursement of the amount received for this purpose, in accordance with current CAPES regulations.

The foreign Visiting Professor is responsible for taking the necessary steps to obtain an entry visa to Brazil, in the category corresponding to the activities to be carried out and valid for the period of stay in Brazil, including provision for a possible extension of the contract, under current legislation. Accordingly, everyone coming to Brazil to carry out academic activities, courses, lectures or research activities must contact the Brazilian Consulate in their home country before travelling and, above all, comply with Brazilian legislation on stays in the national territory. This is an essential requirement for accountability to CAPES.

Application requirements:

I. Hold a doctoral degree or equivalent;

II. Reside abroad;

III. Have recognized competence as a researcher in their field; and

IV. Have relevant academic output, especially in the last five years.

4.1.2 Postdoctoral Fellowship in Brazil (With Experience Abroad): The Postdoctoral Fellowship with experience abroad modality aims to attract Brazilian or foreign researchers or faculty residing abroad who have relevant academic and scientific experience abroad (such as a full doctorate or a postdoctoral position of at least twelve months), to carry out research or teaching activities for a minimum of 6 months and a maximum of 36 months, within the term of the Institutional Internationalization Project.

Duration: 12 months, renewable up to a maximum of 36 months, within the term of the Network's activities.

Benefits (Ordinance No. 1 of January 3, 2020, as amended):

I. Settling-in allowance;

II. Travel allowance;

III. Health insurance allowance; and

IV. Monthly stipend.

Application requirements:

I. Reside abroad;

II. Hold a Brazilian individual taxpayer number (CPF) at the time of scholarship nomination; and

III. Relevant academic and scientific experience abroad (full doctorate or postdoctoral position of at least twelve months).

4.1.3 Sandwich Doctorate in Brazil: The main objective of the Sandwich Doctorate in Brazil scholarship is to support the internationalization of Brazilian HEIs, broaden the cultural horizons of Brazilians, promote the academic training of foreign nationals in stricto sensu graduate programs in Brazil and encourage foreign students to enter graduate programs, thereby fostering knowledge exchange and cultural diversity in Brazilian HEIs.

Duration: 6 months or 12 months.

Benefits (Ordinance No. 1 of January 3, 2020, as amended):

I. Settling-in allowance;

II. Travel allowance;

III. Health insurance allowance;

IV. Monthly stipend.

Application requirements:

I. Be regularly enrolled in a doctoral program abroad;

II. Hold a Brazilian individual taxpayer number (CPF) at the time of scholarship nomination;

III. Reside abroad;

IV. Be a foreign national;

V. Not hold Brazilian nationality, dual Brazilian nationality or the right to Brazilian nationality at the time of application;

VI. Not hold a permanent residence permit for Brazil;

VII. Provide proof of completion of a degree considered equivalent to an undergraduate degree in the Brazilian system;

VIII. Not be currently enrolled in Brazil in a program at the same level of study as the one sought;

IX. Not be in default with CAPES or listed in any register of defaulters maintained by Federal Public Administration bodies;

X. Be able to start academic activities immediately, in compliance with the deadline set by the PPG and the deadlines established in this call;

XI. Be registered on the ORCID platform and enter their identifier in the CAPES online application form; candidates not yet registered on the platform must register via the link <https://orcid.org>;

XII. Have fulfilled the required interstice, i.e., have remained in their country of origin or residence for at least 2 (two) years after:

a) Obtaining a Brazilian degree, in the case of PEC-G alumni and of candidates who received a scholarship from a Brazilian funding agency to pursue an undergraduate degree in Brazil; and

b) Obtaining a master's degree (professional or academic), in the case of PEC-PG alumni or of candidates who received a scholarship from a Brazilian funding agency.

XIII. Not have been awarded a scholarship under the CAPES Move la America program;

XIV. Not have been awarded a Sandwich Doctorate or Full Doctorate scholarship by a federal public entity in this or any previous doctoral program, in the case of applications for a Doctorate (Sandwich or Full).

XV. Not have been awarded a Sandwich Master's or Full Master's scholarship by a federal public entity in this or any previous master's program, in the case of applications for a Full Master's.

XVI. Not hold a doctoral degree, for candidates in all modalities;

XVII. Meet the other requirements set out in the selection instrument.

4.2 For all modalities, candidates must be approved in the internal selection governed by this Call, in accordance with the requirements established by the Brazilian HEI.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 Office of the Dean of Graduate Studies (PRPG)

The Office of the Dean of Graduate Studies must:

a) Widely publicize the CAPES Global.Edu Program within the institution, including on its institutional website information about the Program and the internal calls for the CAPES Global.Edu selection;

b) Prepare and publish, together with the PPGs, the Call for the internal selection of candidates for the Program, in compliance with CAPES regulations and the Program's deadlines;

c) Distribute the institutional quotas and redistribute any remaining quotas;

d) Detail the appeal procedure in its internal calls;

e) Verify whether the internal selection process has met all the requirements of this Call and CAPES regulations;

f) Publish on the institutional website the final result with the list of candidates approved in the internal selection process, stating the scholarship period ratified by the PRPG;

g) Advise candidates on compliance with the Scholarship Regulations;

h) In the event of non-compliance with the respective requirements, applications will be cancelled, even if already approved in the internal selection process conducted by the Application Selection Committee. In such cases, the PRPG may call upon the Committee to approve the next ranked candidate in the selection process, provided that the CAPES application period is observed;

i) Ratify the applications of the candidates approved in the internal selection process;

j) Keep CAPES duly informed of any change in the activities carried out by the scholarship holder abroad;

k) Fulfil the requirements relating to the HEI's commitments to CAPES at the end of each scholarship granted under CAPES Global.Edu; and

l) Keep the original documentation of the internal selection process for the candidates awarded scholarships for a minimum of 5 (five) years, for possible consultation by CAPES and oversight bodies.

5.2 Participating Graduate Programs

The Graduate Program Coordination must:

a) Widely publicize the CAPES Global.Edu Call among faculty and students, with the support and authorization of the HEI's Office of the Dean of Graduate Studies.

b) Conduct the internal selection of candidates for CAPES Global.Edu, in compliance with CAPES regulations and the deadlines of this Call.

c) Publish the preliminary result of the PPG internal selection process.

d) Assess appeals in accordance with the deadlines and rules set out in the HEI's internal selection Call.

e) Promote the dissemination of research carried out under the CAPES Global.Edu Program.

f) Inform CAPES of any change in the scholarship holder's data that may affect the payment or award of the scholarship.

5.3 Brazilian Supervisor

The Brazilian supervisor, where applicable, must:

a) Formally submit the supervisee's application and the documentation required by this Call to the PPG Coordination at the HEI.

b) Continuously monitor the scholarship holder to ensure compliance with the obligations set out in the Scholarship Award and Acceptance Agreement.

c) Demonstrate interaction with the co-supervisor abroad for the development of the doctoral candidate's research activities.

d) Promote the dissemination of research carried out under the CAPES Global.Edu Program.

e) Inform CAPES of any change in the scholarship holder's data that may affect the payment or award of the scholarship.

c) Objectives, with a clear definition and delimitation of the object of study;

d) Methodology to be used;

e) Schedule of activities;

f) References.

VI. The faculty member accredited to the Unimontes PPG is responsible for mediating the preparation of the work plan with the candidate.

VII. Letter from the host faculty member, on letterhead and signed, confirming acceptance of the candidate and the provision of the infrastructure necessary for the scholarship holder to carry out the activities set out in the work plan.

VIII. Application Form (Annex II).

8. SELECTION COMMITTEE

8.1 Graduate Program (PPG) Internal Selection Committee

The PPG Internal Selection Committee shall be appointed by the Program Coordinator and composed of at least 3 (three) members: 1 (one) student representative of the Program (according to the composition of the program board) and at least 2 (two) faculty members of the Program accredited as permanent faculty. Supervisors of applicant students may not serve on this Committee.

8.1.1 The PPG Internal Selection Committee is responsible for assessing whether the candidate meets the requirements set out in item 4 of this call, checking the documents listed in item 7 of this call and evaluating the merit of the proposal.

8.1.2 Once the internal selection is completed, the PPG must send to the PRPG, by November 11, 2026, via SEI, the documentation of the approved candidates, for the purposes of quota distribution and ratification.

8.2 CAPES-Global.Edu Unimontes Institutional Selection Committee

The Committee shall be appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies and composed of 6 (six) members: the Dean of Graduate Studies (1), the Coordinators of the thematic areas (2), a representative of the technical-administrative staff (1), a representative of the Unimontes steering committee (1) and a representative of the administrative committee (1). Supervisors of applicant students may not serve on this Committee.

9. SELECTION STAGES

9.1 First Stage

The first stage, i.e., the documentary and academic merit assessment of the candidates' proposals, will be carried out by the PPG Internal Selection Committee from October 19 to November 3, 2026. The Committee will check the documentation described in item 7 of this Call, according to the scholarship modality.

- a) Candidates who fail to submit the documentation required in item 7 of this call will be eliminated.
- b) CV scores will be normalized, with the highest score achieved taken as 100% and the others calculated relative to it.
- c) When assessing the work plans, the Committee shall give preference to those of longer duration.
- d) In the event of a tie, the following tie-breaking criteria will be considered: 1st, merit, originality and relevance of the project for Brazil's scientific, technological and innovation development; and 2nd, regularity and quality of the candidate's scientific output and experience.
- e) The Committee shall draw up the minutes of the selection process and attach them to the electronic file to be sent via SEI to the PRPG/Unimontes.

Candidates may file an appeal with the PPG from November 5 to 8, 2026. The PPG Internal Selection Committee is responsible for reviewing the appeals and issuing the respective opinions.

9.1.1 Visiting Professor in Brazil and Postdoctoral Fellowship with Experience Abroad: Documentary and Merit Assessment

Candidates will be assessed according to the following general criteria:

- a) CV Assessment: Assessment of the candidate's academic profile and scientific output, considering the intellectual production of scientific articles and the training of human resources in the last 5 years (2022-2026).
- b) Work Plan Assessment: Assessment of the submitted proposal according to the merit criteria detailed in Annex V. Candidates will be ranked according to the following weighting:

Candidate's CV: 50% Work plan: 50%

9.1.2 Sandwich Doctorate in Brazil: Documentary and Merit Assessment

Candidates will be assessed according to the following general criteria:

- a) CV Assessment (Candidate and Supervisor): Assessment of the academic profile and scientific output of both, in accordance with the scoring tables detailed in Annexes III and IV of this Call. Intellectual production (scientific articles) in the last 5 years (2022-2026) will be considered.
- b) Work Plan Assessment: Assessment of the submitted proposal according to the merit criteria detailed in Annex V.

Candidates will be ranked by the PPG according to the following weighting:

Supervisor's Lattes CV: 20% Candidate's Lattes CV: 30% Work plan: 50%

9.2 Second Stage

The second stage of selection will be carried out by the CAPES-Global.Edu Unimontes Institutional Selection Committee from November 12 to 23, 2026, and will consider criteria of academic merit (Mi) and internationalization potential (Ii), according to the final ranking index (IFC) described below:

Final Ranking Index (IFC) $IFC = (0.70 \times Mi) + 0.30 \times (100 - Ii)$

Where:

(Mi) = Academic merit of the proposal, according to the PPG internal assessment;

(Ii) = PPG internationalization index, as a percentage (% of publications in international collaboration in the PPG's continuity evaluation for the 2021 to 2024 cycle, obtained from the Web of Science database).

- a) The final ranking will be defined based on the IFC result. Equity principles will then be considered in the analysis of the proposals, in order to ensure balance in the process.
- b) In the event of a tie in the final ranking, the following tie-breaking criteria will be applied, in order of priority:

I. Not having received institutional support for internationalization actions in the last 2 (two) years;

II. Not having carried out activities linked to the requested modality in the last 2 (two) years.

c) The CAPES-Global.Edu Unimontes Institutional Selection Committee has full autonomy to conduct and decide on the selection process, in compliance with the criteria established in this call.

d) Cases not covered or exceptional cases will be analyzed by the CAPES-Global.Edu Unimontes Institutional Selection Committee.

10. APPLICATION AND SUBMISSION OF DOCUMENTATION BY THE CANDIDATE

10.1 The documentation described in item 7 of this call must be sent electronically by the candidate to the institutional email address of the respective PPG between September 21 and October 18, 2026.

10.2 Each candidate may apply for only one scholarship modality for the current year, even if linked to different PPGs. In the event of duplicate applications, only the last (most recent) submission will be considered valid, and the candidate will be disqualified from the others.

11. CRITERIA FOR QUOTA DISTRIBUTION

The distribution of scholarship quotas at Unimontes will take into account the total number of scholarships available to the institution. Scholarships will be allocated according to the recorded demand, and the institution reserves the right to reallocate the quotas initially set out in Table 1 of this Call, in order to optimize the use of resources and serve the largest possible number of approved candidates.

12. GENERAL PROVISIONS

12.1 The award of scholarships and allowances is subject to CAPES' budgetary and financial availability.

12.2 The HEI is responsible for the procedures adopted in the internal selection process, as well as for nominating the scholarships of approved candidates in the CAPES System (SICAPES).

12.3 Candidates are solely responsible for meeting the selection requirements established by CAPES and by this call. CAPES reserves the right to exclude from the selection process or from the Program, at any time, any candidate who submits partial, incorrect, inconsistent or late documentation or information, or if such data or documents are later found to be untrue.

12.4 If irregularities are identified after the award, CAPES will cancel the scholarship and request reimbursement of the amounts paid, plus interest and monetary adjustment, in accordance with applicable legislation.

12.5 CAPES reserves the right to request from scholarship holders, at any time, any additional information or documents it deems necessary.

12.6 Cases not covered or exceptional cases will be analyzed by CAPES.

12.7 Candidates are solely responsible for following updates to this call, which may be amended at any time for reasons of convenience and opportunity.

12.8 This call may be revoked or annulled, in whole or in part, at any time, by unilateral decision of the PRPG or CAPES, for reasons of public interest or legal requirement, without giving rise to any right to compensation or claim of any kind.

12.9 Remaining quotas may be redistributed among alternate candidates by modality.

12.10 Each PPG may preselect up to 3 (three) candidates, subject to the limit of positions available for each modality presented in Table 1 of this Call.

12.11 In order to promote equity among the participating PPGs, the distribution of positions will give priority to awarding one position per program, provided that the candidate is ranked on the final approval list and meets the requirements established in this call.
